PUBLICATIONS

Books

   Winner of 2013 Herbert Jacobs book award, Law and Society Association, “for a major contribution to sociolegal scholarship.”

   - Co-winner of the 2000 Herbert Jacob Biannual Book Prize by the Law and Society Association, “for a major contribution to sociolegal scholarship.”

   - Book version of special issue of Canadian J. of Sociology

   - Chapter 1 reprinted in A. Glasbeek, ed., Moral regulation and governance in Canada (CSPI 2006); various chapters used in numerous course packages in Canadian history courses.

   - Published in French, with a new introduction, as Sexe, pouvoir, plaisir by Remue-Menage, Montreal, 1989.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
- Published in German, with a new introduction, as Sex, Macht, und Lust by Orlanda Frauenverlag, Berlin, 1989.
- German translation republished as mass-market paperback by Fischer Verlag, 1994.
- Other excerpts republished in other anthologies on sexuality.

Book chapters

Note: refereed books marked with an asterisk *

Note: all chapters and articles single-authored unless otherwise indicated

"Beyond the Criminal Code: municipal licensing and zoning bylaws", co-authored with Emily van der Meulen, in E. Van der Meulen et al, eds., Selling sex: experience, advocacy, and research in Canada. Vancouver, University of British Columbia Press, 2013

“Law versus history: Foucault’s genealogy of modern sovereignty” in Andrew Neal and Michael Dillon,

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
* "Police, law, and sovereignty in Foucault's College de France lectures" in M. Dubber and M. Valverde, eds., Police and the liberal state (Stanford, Stanford University Press, 2008), 15-32

* "Experience and truth telling in a post-humanist world: a Foucaultian contribution to feminist ethical reflections" in Karen Vintges and Diana Taylor, eds., Feminism and the final Foucault (University of Illinois Press, 2004), 63-90.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
* “‘When the mother of the race is free’: ‘race’ in first-wave feminist sexual and reproductive politics” in F. Iacovetta and M. Valverde, eds., Gender conflicts: new essays in women’s history (Toronto, University of Toronto Press, 1992), pp. 3-26.

Refereed journal articles

Note: articles sole-authored unless otherwise indicated

“The re-scaling of feminist analyses of law and state power: from (domestic) subjectivity to (transnational) governance networks”, forthcoming in University of California at Irvine Law Review

“Studying the governance of crime and security: space, time, and jurisdiction” forthcoming in Criminology and Criminal Justice.

“Between a rock and a hard place: legal studies beyond both disciplinarity and interdisciplinarity” Critical Analyses of Law [online journal], Vol. 1 no. 1, 2014.

"Analyzing punishment: scope and scale" Theoretical Criminology Vol. 16 no 2, (Spring 2012) 245-255

"The Crown in a multicultural age: the changing epistemology of (post)colonial sovereignty" Social and Legal Studies 21, 1 (March 2012), 3-21 [lead article]

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
“Seeing like a city: the dialectic of modern and premodern knowledges in urban governance”, Law and Society Review. 45 no. 2 (June 2011), 277-313.

“Remembering Walter Benjamin from both sides of the Pyrenees”, Public Culture 21, 3 (2009), 441-450.

“Laws of the street” City and Society vol. 21, no. 2 (2009), 163-181.

“Comment” on Loic Wacquant’s Punishing the Poor, Theoretical Criminology Vol. 14, no. 1 (2010), 117-19; simultaneously published in six languages in various European journals.

“The sociology of law as ‘a means against struggle itself’” Social and Legal Studies Vol. 15, no. 4 (December 2006), 591-598.

“Taking land use seriously: toward an ontology of municipal law” Law, Text, Culture vol. 9 (2005), 34-59.

“Which side are you on?” Uses of the everyday in sociolegal scholarship” PoLAR (Political and Legal Anthropology Review) Vol. 26, no. 1 (May 2003), 86-98.

“Police science, British style: pub licensing and knowledges of urban disorder” Economy and Society Vol. 43 no. 2 (May 2003), 234-53.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae

R. Levi and M. Valverde, “Knowledge on tap: police science and everyday knowledge in the legal regulation of drunkenness” Law and Social Inquiry, Vol. 26 no. 4 (Fall 2001), 819-846
   - Reprinted in Elizabeth Mertz, ed., The role of social science in law (Ashgate, 2008)

“Some remarks on the rise and fall of discourse analysis” Social history/ Histoire sociale (spring 2001), 59-77.

“The harms of sex and the risks of breasts: obscenity and indecency in Canadian law” Social and Legal Studies vol. 8 no. 2 (June 1999), 181-198.

“Derrida’s justice and Foucault’s freedom: ethics, history and social movements” Law and Social Inquiry Vol. 24, no. 3 (Summer 1999), 655-676.

M. Valverde and K. White-Mair, “‘One day at a time’ and other slogans for everyday life: the ethical practices of Alcoholics Anonymous” Sociology: Journal of the British Sociological Association vol. 33 no. 2 (May 1999), 393-410.

“Slavery from within’: the invention of alcoholism and the question of free will in late Victorian Britain” Social History Vol. 22 no. 3 (Oct. 1997), 251-268.

“Six dimensions of social governance: research questions beyond the dichotomy of public and private” in Cahiers d’histoire (mars 1997), 40-55.

“Social facticity and the law: a social expert’s eyewitness account of law” Social and Legal Studies Vol. 5 no. 1 (June 1996), 201-217.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae

“The mixed economy as a Canadian tradition” Studies in Political Economy 47 (Summer 1995), 33-60.
- Reprinted in P. Armstrong and P. Evans, eds., Feminism, political economy and the state (Toronto, Canadian Scholars Press, 1999)

- Reprinted in J. Parr and M. Rosenfeld, eds., Gender and history in Canada (Toronto, Copp Clark, 1996).

“As if there were subjects: discourses and social subjectivity” Canadian Review of Sociology and Anthropology Vol. 28 no. 3 (May 1991) 173-187.

- Reprinted in two anthologies of feminist legal studies

- Reprinted in S. Heald, Moral Regulation Reader (Toronto, Canadian Scholars Press, 1995) and in A. Glasbeek, Moral regulation and governance in Canada (2006)

“Giving the female a domestic turn’: the legal, social and moral regulation of women’s work in British cotton mills, 1820-1850” Journal of Social History, Vol. 21, no. 4 (June 1988), 619-634.
- Article nominated by the journal for Berkshire prize in women’s history.

Major review essays (single authored unless otherwise specified)

“Foucault’s criminology lectures: new insights on the history of legal forms” Major review essay on M. Foucault, Mal faire, dire vrai (Louvain lectures), forthcoming in Law and Social Inquiry.

“Genealogies of European states: Foucaultian reflections” [Major review essay of two volumes of Foucault’s lectures], Economy and Society Vol. 36, no. 1 (February 2007), 159-178.

“‘No baby? No nation!’” [Review essay on five books on state regulation of motherhood] Signs Vol. 20 no. 2 (Fall 1994).

“Poststructuralist gender historians: are we those names?” [Review essay on Joan Scott’s Gender and the politics of history and D. Riley, *Am I that name?] Labour/ le travail 25 (1990), 227-236.

Other publications (selected)

“Beyond Discipline and Punish: Foucault’s challenge to criminology” in Carceral Notebooks vol. 4 (University of Chicago), 2009, 201-224.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae

Edited conference proceedings for the Radically rethinking regulation conference held in 1994 (Proceedings published by Centre of Criminology, 1994).

Edited conference proceedings for New forms of governance conference (Proceedings published by Centre of Criminology, 1997).

Two entries in the Dictionary of Canadian Biography (Florence Kinton; John G. Shearer).

Invited lectures

‘Urban citizenship: seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood’. Social science research institute, UNAM (Mexico City), March 2014.

Graduate seminar and public lecture, Geography Department, Simon Fraser University, Feb. 2014.

‘Urban citizenship and ways of seeing the city’. Keynote talk at annual meeting of Heritage Canada Foundation, Ottawa, November 2013.

‘Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood, seeing like a firm’. Georg Simmel centre for metropolitan studies, Humboldt University, Berlin, October 2013.

‘How to do the history of criminology: an opinionated view’ York University annual criminology lecture, March 2013, York University.

‘How to do the history of criminology differently’ Joint Sociology-Legal Studies lecture, Carleton M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
University, March 2013.

‘Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood’ Invited lecture sponsored by several departments, Open University, December 2012.

‘Chronotopes of law’ Birkbeck College Law Department, December 2012.

"Beyond 'law and space': towards a post-geographical approach to spatiotemporality" University of Buffalo law school (legal geography symposium), April 2012.

"Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood, seeing like a firm: scales of urban citizenship" University of Bristol (Law and Geography joint event), March 2012

"Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood, seeing like a firm" University of Victoria, February 2012.

"The death of planning?" University of Victoria Faculty of Law, February 2012.

"Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood, seeing like a firm" University of Toronto Faculty of Law (symposium on urban law) January 2011

"The death of planning?" York University, Faculty of Environmental Studies, November 2011.

“Seeing like a city, seeing like a neighbourhood: temporal and spatial scales of practices of citizenship” University of California Irvine, April 15, 2010.

“Jurisdiction and scale” Keynote address, combined Osgoode-U of T graduate students in law conference, January 30, 2010.

“How the earth became a collection of land uses”. University of Sydney Law School, October 2009. (Distinguished Visitor)

“Community consultations and scales of citizenship”, University of Western Sydney, October 2009.

Invited talk at symposium at University of British Columbia on the state of socio-legal scholarship, May 2009.

“The ethic of urban diversity”, University of Kent Centre for Law, Gender and Sexuality, June 2009.

“The learned city that has trouble learning” Keynote address, Osgoode Hall conference on ‘The learning city’, March 5, 2009

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
“Urban citizenship: beyond the rights of persons” London School of Economics (Sociology), December 12, 2008

“Beyond Discipline and punish: a new look at Foucault’s toolbox” London School of Economics (Law)

“The question of scale in the governance of urban security” Carleton University Sociology, October 2008.

“The question of scale in urban criminology” Leeds University (Criminology), June 28, 2008

“Jurisdiction and scale: using law’s technicalities as resources for theory” Onati International Institute for the Sociology of Law, April 24, 2008.

“The ethic of urban diversity” University of Manitoba, February 2008 (Law and Society series).

Four lectures on current criminological theory: Universitat de Girona, May 2007 (Visiting scholar).

“Local governance, diversity, and the logic of the norm” University of Southern California (Centre for Feminist Research), November 2006

“Sovereignty, police, and the liberal state: Foucaultian reflections” Southwest School of Law, Los Angeles, November 2006.

“Toward an ontology of zoning law”, University of Bristol, June 2006 (Keynote for joint Geography, Planning, and Law conference on ‘Local space and law’).

“Sovereignty, police, and the liberal state: Foucaultian reflections” Carleton University, March 2006.

“Seeing like a city: legal tools of urban ordering” Centre for Law and Society, Berkeley (Boalt Hall), February 2004.

“Foucault on race wars” University of British Columbia Sociology Dept., February 2004.

“Seeing like a city: legal tools of urban ordering” University of British Columbia Law School, M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae

“Race struggles and the emergence of modern states: Foucault on race, war, and modern sovereignty” Keele University Criminology Dept., November 2003.

“Pragmatic and non-pragmatic knowledge practices in American law” Cornell University Faculty of Law (Workshop on pragmatist knowledge practices), March 28, 2003.

“Criminologies for and in the Americas” Keynote address, Argentinian Criminology Congress, Faculty of Law, Univ. of Buenos Aires, Sept. 2002.

“Racial masquerades: race-specific liquor laws in Canada” McMaster University, Sociology department, October 2000.

Keynote address at Nordic Alcohol Studies Council annual meeting in Reykjavik, August 2000

Participation in invited closed workshop “Ontologies of the Political”, University of Victoria August 2000.

Keynote address at Critical Legal Conference, Birkbeck College, University of London, Sept. 18, 1999. Title: “Law and the will to truth”.

M Valverde, Curriculum Vitae
“The harms of sex and the risks of breasts in Canadian criminal law” Queen Mary and Westfield College, University of London, Department of Laws, February 1998.

“Speaking of sex: North American feminists debate sexuality” Philosophy Department, University of Barcelona, April 1997.

“The harms of sex: obscenity law in Canada” Women’s Studies, University of California at Berkeley, April 1997.

“Governing out of habit: toward a genealogy of addiction” Lancaster University department of Sociology, May 1996.

“Governing out of habit: toward a genealogy of addiction” Carleton University jurisprudence seminar, March 1996.

“From habitual drunkard to addictive personality: some thoughts on the history of alcoholism” Queen’s University Sociology department, November 1995.

“From the habitual drunkard to the addictive personality: some thoughts on the history of alcoholism” Addiction Research Foundation Social Evaluation and Research department, April 1995.

“Moral fitness and liberal ethical governance” Green College, University of British Columbia, November 1994.

“Public crime or private vice? Doing the history of alcohol” History Department University of Victoria, November 1994.

“Uses and abuses of discourse analysis” Annual endowed lecture in social theory; Sociology department, University of Waterloo, March 1994.

“Moral capital” University of Toronto Law School, November 1992.

Book reviews

Over 40 reviews in a wide variety of journals (socio-legal studies, sociology, history).